An Invitation to Love Jesus Newsletter

Messages of Love January 2022 Issue 319

Editorial

This month, the editorial has been written by the two Patricks and the Committee of the Sacred Heart House of Prayer to answer frequently asked questions.

The two Patricks and the Committee

Most people, when asking us questions, ask mainly about three things:

our spiritual director,
who looks after the finances,
who owns the Houses of Prayer.
We, the two Patricks and the Committee, (Jesus addresses these as the 'Counsel') will try to answer these questions so everyone will know the answers to these three questions.

Patrick's:

Spiritual Director:

Our spiritual director was Father Michael O'Carroll until he read the Secret Messages that Jesus gave to us. After reading them, he kissed them and said,

"...You do not realise how long I have waited for these Words and, how many other priests have waited for them". Then he said,

"...Remember; you have free will and you do not have to do this".

We answered him and said that we understood but we wanted to do it for Jesus and he replied,

"Then go and do it. I can no longer be your spiritual director for Jesus is directing you Himself and my direction to you is to be obedient to what Jesus has asked and is asking of you".

From that point we have been obedient to Father Michael O'Carroll and we try to be obedient to Jesus.

The Finances:

To the enquiries about the Houses of Prayer and the finances: these have nothing to do with us, the two Patricks. The Houses of Prayer are held in trust by trustees and we are not part of the trustees. The finances and running of the Houses of Prayer are run by a committee of twelve which we are also not part of. We have nothing and we do not wish to own anything; we do not even own our own houses! The only thing that we wish is to follow the Truth of Jesus through dying to self, loving of neighbour and so on. We are always open to helping with advice as to what Jesus asked for in the Houses of Prayer but the Houses are not our mission. They are the mission of all those in the Lay Order of The Way of the Sacred Heart that Jesus has asked for.

as given to the two Patricks

Sunday 1 January 2023

My children, as I have said: it has begun. The beginnings of the end for the evil of this generation. Already, you can see this, if you have the eyes to see. I have told you to prepare by dying to self so that you might be able to fight the blanket of fear that lucifer has placed over this generation in order to control you.

Now, it has begun.

My Justice comes to bring Justice to the millions of unborn, murdered through the act of abortion. I have Warned you. I have told you in Scripture:

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the Word of God and for the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying: How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

Revelations 6:9-11

Now, you will drink the Cup of Justice you have created by your own actions. Repent, generation, you have drank the Blood of the Innocent by your actions and, now, the debt you created must be paid. Prepare!

Repent and follow Me!

I Love you.

Monday 2 January 2023

Look at the Gift I give to you in these Words of Love.

Look how I Warn and guide you. See the Truth of what I speak for, soon, even these Words will come to an end and this world will know Truth.

Rejoice, children of Mine, for these Words shall be known and read for all time. They shall be treasured for many will see how I tried to guide this generation away from danger and they will see and wonder at how few listened.

Prepare, children, take on these Words of Truth for little time is left and so few have listened. Trust Me now and prepare. I Love you.

Tuesday 3 January 2023

Come, children of Mine, trust in Me and believe in the Words I give you. Show Me that you believe, by dying to self, by removing the sin from your lives. Trust Me, children, SHOW Me. I Love you.

Wednesday 4 January 2023

Look only to the Truth, My children, and do not be afraid to follow Me. I have given you all that you need to live in Truth within My Scriptures but, so few of you read them and so you wander on many paths that are tainted by lies. Trust Me, children, when you die to self, you will begin to see the Truth and My Path will open before you. All I ask is that you trust Me and begin this Journey of dying to self with Me. Trust Me, children. I Love you.

Wednesday 4 January 2023

My children, My Love for you is undying. I have given My All so that you might live with Me in the Kingdom of Heaven for all eternity but, so many reject Me every day and cast themselves into the fires of hell where they call out in anger and rage at how I have offended them with lies and deceit. They have blinded themselves with anger and only see Me as a God that inflicts suffering upon them.

Children, you do not realise that you have been created to be heirs to the Kingdom of your God.

You do not realise the power of free will that you have been given and, when you use the power of free will to ignore the Truth, there is nothing I can do to convince a soul to change their mind and so, you see, why so many are lost every day. They refuse to see or admit to their sin and rail against Me and blame Me for their sin.

Oh, My children, fight against the sin in your lives so that you can see your wrongdoings and repent. Pray that your eyes be open to the Truth. Look towards Me with trust and love and I will guide you on the Path to Heaven.

Trust Me, children.

I Love you.

Thursday 5 January 2023

Come to Me, children of Mine, and do not be afraid. I am with you at all times and I give you these Words to let you know I am with you. I do not leave you but I will not interfere with your free will; all decisions must be yours.

Trust Me. I try to guide you upon this Path of dying to self so that you will be kept safe but so few are willing to listen. Trust Me and overcome self and when you break through the barrier of self then the Gifts of My Spirit will manifest themselves in you. Freedom will be given and My Spirit will work many miracles through you.

Trust Me and walk this Path with Me.

I Love you.

Friday 6 January 2023

Believe in Me, children, and do not let this world turn your thoughts from Me. Believe in My Love for you, My children. Believe I give you these Words in order to keep you safe in this time that lucifer has been given freedom by mankind to destroy the Truth.

Look at what you call the internet, look at that what you call social media, Truth is banned or surrounded with so many lies that Truth can no longer be recognised in the confusion. This is Truth: the knowledge of these things were given to mankind by lucifer to promote sin and this is what it has done through mankind's free will. If you could see this world that you live in, through the eyes of the soul, you would see a dark ugly world, surrounded with the lies of lucifer that he has spun into a great web that hides all Truth.

But, already a Light begins to burn as My Justice begins to manifest itself. My Spirit will guide the Light of Truth and the way of lies will shatter and all will be seen in the Light of My Truth.

Trust Me, children, the spark begins to grow and soon all shall be seen and My Love will cleanse this earth of its evil chains. Trust Me, children, and become little lights of Truth and We, together, will overcome.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Sunday 8 January 2023

Trust in Me, children of Mine, and walk this Path of Truth with Me. Believe in the Words I give to you through My two for, soon, you will see and understand as the Ways of Love cut through the darkness.

Trust Me, children, and walk this Path of self dying.

Trust.

I Love you.

Monday 9 January 2023

Come, children of Mine, and believe I am with you. I am guiding all who wish to follow Me in Truth. I say your Freedom is at hand, already the spark begins to grow and soon this world will see as its Power bursts forth.

My Truth cannot be stopped, it is a rock that will stand forever. Believe, children, it has begun.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Tuesday 10 January 2023

Believe in My Truth and stay close to Me in these days of great darkness. Believe, children, the darkness is coming to an end and My people will know Freedom and My Truth, My Love will flourish for a time.

Believe, children, My Spirit, My Justice, is at work in this world and the web of lies is about to fall as My Truth begins to shine. Trust Me and prepare, time is short.

Trust.

I Love you.

Wednesday 11 January 2023

Believe, children, in My Truth and follow the Law of Love. Never justify sin for sin is darkness and cannot be justified as Light.

Light is Truth and it can enter Heaven.

Justified sin is darkness and will be destroyed by the Light and so will never enter Heaven.

Trust Me to guide you upon the Path of Truth. The more you die to self, the more I will be able to fill you and guide you in the Ways of your God.

Have faith, children, I give you these Words so that the Path to Heaven is made clear to you. Believe, children of Mine, and do as I say for sin is your enemy and can be defeated when you follow Me in Truth.

Trust Me, children.

Trust.

I Love you.

Thursday 12 January 2023

Children of Mine, I Love you. Feel the joy of My Heart as you read these Words of Love.

It has begun: the spark burns and cannot be extinguished. My Spirit now grows bright and will grow in Power and Strength as more and more faith is placed in Him.

Trust Me, children, and know that the web of lies begins to collapse and, very soon, this world will see what has been done in the name of progress and health care. The lies begin to crumble. Stay close and do not become involved.

Remember, My Way is the way of forgiveness, never violence, anger or revenge.

Trust Me and walk in My Love and you will see this time to an end.

Trust Me and let Love be your guide.

I Love you.

Friday 13 January 2023

Believe, My children, and do not be afraid of Me, your God. I am a God who Loves His people and so, I will not interfere with the Gift of free will I have given to all My people. I will not take this Gift away but, the point has come when I must intervene because, those who think that they have the power, have allowed lucifer to control My people through unjust laws and take away their free will. he inspires laws so that sin is accepted as Truth and so, free will is abolished. I will not allow this. Sin is darkness and it only leads to hell.

Do you think I created man to love man in ways of lust or, woman to love woman in lust? No, I created man and woman to love and care for one another and, in so doing, they marry and create a family of love. Man's love for man or woman's love for woman, in the act of homosexuality, only creates sin and so is not created by Me.

Yet, your governments force the people to believe it is normal. Lust is when lucifer and the demons of hell fill the soul with desires that will lead you into a life of dark desires. A life where sins of the flesh lead many souls to hell. This is how many are being led to hell through corrupt laws, brought about by men and women who are controlled by lucifer.

I will put an end to the evil of this generation.

I will put an end to abortion, where you murder your own children because it is lawful.

I shall shatter your laws and show you the Truth of what you have done.

I will show everyone on this world the Truth before the end.

So, all will have a chance to repent before I cleanse this earth of those who refuse to repent for their evil ways.

Trust Me, children, and believe.

I Love you.

Friday 13 January 2023 Feast of Love

My children of My Love, I Love you. I did not come to this earth to tell you dates and times. That was never My Mission nor, My children, is it yours. You, who follow Me, it is your mission to Love in My Name; it is your mission to spread this Love of Mine into the world by the way you live your lives. If you do not die to the things within you, that keep you from Me then how can you Love in My Name?

Many of you ask, I hear it in your hearts, how do I die to self? That question is the beginning of dying to self.

You cannot see what you are influenced by, an influence that is not Me, an influence that takes you further from Me. You allow these influences to become the way you live your life, like one who does not know any better. You shut your eyes and ears to My Influences but not to the influences of the world. I have asked you, do not be of the world, even though you are in it. Do not allow the world to take you from Me by its influences of money, of pride, of greed, of lust but, instead, look to these Words in My Scripture:

16 Jesus said, "Are you still lacking in understanding also?

17 "Do you not understand that everything that goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and is eliminated?

18 "But the things that proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and those defile the man.

19 "For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, slanders.

20 "These are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man."

Matthew 15:16-20

This is what you must die to: the things within that incline you to evil. These things are what influences you, they come from within you. They are not died to and so they influence you. If you do not check the gossip in your heart or on your tongue, then you are influenced by it. If you do not check the lust or greed in your heart and die to these things, then you are not dying to yourself. These are not new things I Teach you but what I have already Taught. How can you say that you love your neighbour if you think and speak bad things about him? Does envy not incline you to speak like this?

This is what I mean by dying to self: to die to the things within that influence you to sin. While these things are in the heart, I cannot influence you to the Good. In your free will, you must begin the Journey of dying to self, of dying to the things within, the greed, the lust, the gossip. Call on Me to help you as you begin this Journey for the more you succeed with My Help, the closer will your heart incline unto Me.

I Love you and how I wish the Fire of My Love had begun to burn in you, bringing you to Me.

Saturday 14 January 2023

My children, My Truth is at work in this world and I will show the evil of this generation. So much has been done in secret and, now, I will bring their lies out for all to see. I will show this world how evil so many men and women have become. They sentence so many to death with their greed and justify their actions by saying the population is too great and the earth cannot provide for so many. The Truth is: they only think of themselves and what they can gain. This is the Truth that I will reveal and this earth shall be in shock at how evil so many of the rich and the powerful have become.

Trust Me, children, and stay close to Me: forgive and do not let anger enter your hearts. Trust Me and stay close.

I Love you.

Sunday 15 January 2023

Believe, My children, and do not let self control you. Believe in My Truth and believe that I will guide you on the Path of Truth.

Trust Me, children, and My Truth will give you the strength to follow Me in Truth.

Trust Me, children, and try.
I Love you.

Sunday 15 January 2023

Feast of Love

My Heart is yours; It has always been yours from before time began. That Heart has always Loved, always given for Its Nature has always been to do so. My Heart is selfless in Its Love, it is the very essence of what it is. I AM is with you in the depths of your heart and I call you into the depths of your heart to seek Me, to find Me. The Path to Me is one of death; a death to the self that lies like a great chasm between you and I. The bridge across that chasm is Love, children. This is the Way that I have always spoken, it is the way I call you.

In order to make this bridge, you must die to the selfish things within you that are walls between you and I. This is not difficult, My children. You already know the things within you that need to die, you already know that they stand between you and I. Look at how you treat your neighbour, is your heart filled with giving or is it filled with greed that makes you not give? Look at these Words of Mine for they tell you many things about how you treat your neighbour but there is only one way and that is the Way, the way these Words tell you.

25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested Him, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

26 He said to him, "What is written in the law? What is your reading of it?"

27 So he answered and said, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,' and 'your neighbour as yourself.'"

28 And He said to him, "You have answered rightly; do this and you will live."

29 But he, wanting to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?"

30 Then Jesus answered and said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his clothing, wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 Now by chance a certain priest came down that road. And when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 Likewise a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was.

And when he saw him, he had compassion.

34 So he went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; and he set him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I come again, I will repay you.'

36 So which of these three do you think was neighbour to him who fell among the thieves?"

37 And he said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Luke 10:25-37

You see, My children, the one who had compassion on the wounded one loved his neighbour even though that man was his enemy. He took pity on him. This is what I ask of you. The man who had compassion, thought nothing of himself but was willing to give, even though it was a loss to himself.

Who is your neighbour? Is it those who live beside you, those with whom you are friends? No, My children. It is those who live near and far, it is those who are your enemy and those who are your friends. It is every man, woman and child. Do not think evil things of anyone in your heart, but always see the good. Calling your neighbour names in your heart is a sin, My children, a sin that must be died to.

Is this Teaching hard for you to accept, My children? Is the Teaching hard because you do not wish to die to the self in you, when I ask you to love your neighbour and follow Me in the Ways of Perfection?

You see, children, the things in your heart must be died to, for, without this dying, you cannot see, you are blind. Take the bad thoughts you have of your neighbour out of your heart and you will see clearer to see My Way of Love.

There are many other things that you do not see clearly because of what is in the heart that blocks you. Consider these Words in your heart:

52 Then the Jews began to argue with one another, saying, "How can this man give us His flesh to eat?"

53 So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves.

54 "He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

55 "For My flesh is true food, and My blood is true drink.

56 "He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him.

57 "As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats Me, he also will live because of Me.

58 "This is the bread which came down out of heaven; not as the fathers ate and died; he who eats this bread will live forever."

59 These things He said in the synagogue as He taught in Capernaum.

60 Therefore many of His disciples, when they heard this said, "This is a difficult statement; who can listen to it?"

61 But Jesus, conscious that His disciples grumbled at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble?

62 "What then if you see the Son of Man ascending to where He was before?

63 "It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing; the words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life.

64 "But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was that would betray Him.

65 And He was saying, "For this reason I have said to you, that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted him from the Father."
John 6:52-65

Tuesday 17 January 2023

Come to Me, My children, and do not be downhearted by the events that you now see taking place in this world. I have Warned mankind as to what would happen if they turned their backs on their

God. So, now, you can see the results of man's disobedience.

I will rectify everything; I will heal My Creation and remove the evil that men have given freedom to, in their free will. All will be as I Created it to be and, if you remain with Me, then you, too, will be a part of the New Time.

Trust Me and die to self, remove the sin from your lives.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Wednesday 18 January 2023

Believe in My Truth, children, do not accept the lies of those blind shepherds who try to convince you that I am a God who will accept sin. No, children, I do not accept sin. I do not accept the act of sex outside of marriage. I do not accept the act of homosexuality. I do not accept adultery: these are all sins and have no place in My Kingdom.

Truth is My Way and only Truth is acceptable to Me. Wake up and do not listen to those who humanise Me into a man, with no power. The Truth is, I am a Man but I am also the Word of God. I am the Son of the Father. I am your God who Created you and Died for you on the Cross on Calvary. I am He who opened the Gates of Heaven so that you could enter but, to enter, first, you must prove you are worthy and you prove this by the way you live your life.

If you obey My Law and live in truth then, you will enter Heaven.

If you refuse to accept My Laws and choose to live in sin then hell is where you will spend eternity. The choice is yours, children. I will not force you to believe.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Thursday 19 January 2023

Believe in Truth and always look to see that you are not blinding yourselves to Truth because of self's desire. Self's desires are desires that will blind you to the Truth if you allow them.

Trust Me and make the effort to overcome self. Self is the part of you that will listen to the inspirations of lucifer and act on them. So, self is the part of you that must be controlled. Self is the part that holds sin: murder, lies, lust, adultery, all the sins of the flesh, all the desires of wealth and greed, all are a part of self's desire.

When you overcome self, you will feel the Peace of My Spirit deep within you and My Gifts will ignite within you. Already, there are a few who begin to feel the stirrings of My Spirit and will soon ignite and this world will, once again, experience the Revolution of Love.

Trust Me and die to self.

I Love you.

Friday 20 January 2023

Believe in My Love for you, My children, and do not fear. Simply know that I Love you. I am Coming soon to destroy the evil that surrounds this world but there are still many things to happen before the end.

I have told you, My Church is being cleansed but there are still many things to take place within My Church as those who are blinded by evil grow in confidence. They will all but destroy My Church but I will put an end to them and their lies and My Church will shine bright, once again.
Trust Me, children, and stay close.
I Love you.

Saturday 21 January 2023

My children, My Love for you is like a great roaring furnace that never goes out. My Love is all consuming and will live forever and this is the Love that I have for each one of you, children.
Trust in Me and believe for I will do what is needed to protect you, My children, without breaking your free will so, trust in Me and believe.
I Love you.

Sunday 22 January 2023

My children, believe in My Love for you and follow Me in Truth. Do not let yourselves be drawn in by the lies of those in power. Their lies will come to an end and this world will see the Truth. Already, their towers of power begin to crumble; they can see this and try to mend their fortresses of lies with more lies but they will crumble and this world will see how they control the media with money and so were able to spread their lies to the four corners of this earth with ease.
The day of their downfall approaches rapidly and I say, stay close to Me. Do not let this world draw you to its evil. Stay close to Me and I will guide you to safety.

Trust Me.
I Love you.

Monday 23 January 2023

My children, it comes - the tide of darkness - as it tries to gather its harvest of all those who have refused to listen to the Truth. My children, I will give all a chance, I will cast My Truth across this earth and all will see the Truth and all will be given a chance to return.

I say: prepare now while there is still time. My children, I only desire that you be with Me but so few want to follow Me and My Ways. I have told you the way it will be and so if you believe then you must prepare for, I will cleanse the evil from this world and you, children, must be prepared. I have given you so many Words to guide you, now, the decision is yours and you have so little time left to prepare before I must put an end to the evil for it will destroy all life.

Trust Me and prepare.

I Love you.

Tuesday 24 January 2023

Believe, children of Mine, and do not fear; I am Coming to free you from the persecution of this world. I will show you the Truth and you will see the lies of those, who promote Truth, but are lies.

I Come to destroy their lies and their legacy will crumble and become but dust. Prepare, children, for, now, you stand at the gate.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Wednesday 25 January 2023

My children, I, your God, am Coming to destroy all that you see as good. I will destroy all your technology for it has done nothing for the good of mankind or the world you live on. You use all your technology for evil. Wars and murder are its fruits.

Look! Your hospitals are used to murder children in their mothers' wombs, you murder many because they are too old or too sick and money is more important than life to many. Look at your wars, where the innocents are murdered. You use all your technology, cars, aeroplanes, computers, electric and so on, all are used for death and you call your technology progression. I call it blindness.

lucifer uses you like puppets, it is he who inspires your scientists and it is they who bring his inspirations into being.

Look! Can you tell Me, show Me, anything that you have built that is not used in murder? This is why I must remove all that you have built in greed and lust for power.

Trust Me, children, trust Me.

I Love you.

Thursday 26 January 2023

Believe in My Words and look at the Truth of this world that you now live in. It has become an evil place to live in. The rich and the powerful control what happens through your media. Money and power are more important than life. But, already, they have brought about their own downfall for they do not know what they have done by using the blood of the innocents in their vaccines that they thought they were in control of.

The runaway train has begun to move and they cannot stop it. The mountain of death approaches fast and they begin to see but do not understand what has gone wrong with their evil plans.

I have said that evil men listen to and act on the inspirations of lucifer but they think that it is they, themselves, who invent their technology but lucifer uses them like puppets and now uses them to destroy what I created in Love.

Trust Me, children, I allow them their freedom to walk their paths that they have decided to walk in their own free will. They have walked their chosen path and, now, I must intervene for the sake of My remnant. I will cleanse the evil from My Creation and all that they have created in their greed and lust for power will crumble into dust.

Trust Me and believe by preparing, children. If you read these Words and do not prepare by removing the sin from your lives, then I cannot help you for, it is by your actions that you show Me that you believe.

Trust Me and prepare.

I Love you.

Friday 27 January 2023

I am with you, children. Do not fear this world and its evil. Stay close to Me: obey My Laws and no evil will be able to come near you. Believe, children, believe in all My Gifts to you. Each one of you have a Guardian Angel, Gifted to you by the Father of All. Your Angel will look after you and help to guide you in the Way of Truth, if you ask.

Trust Me: your Guardian Angel is very powerful, no demon will be able to come near you if you are in Truth. Always ask your Angel for protection for they will not overstep the bounds of free will.

Trust Me: I have provided you with everything you need to remain safe on this, your earthly trial. I will not desert you; I will never turn away from you. You have nothing to fear in this life, children, simply Love and you will remain with Me.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Tuesday 31 January 2023

Believe, My children, this time is fast coming to an end. The evil of these days is about to implode in on itself. The liars are about to destroy themselves as My Spirit shines the Light of My Truth; My Justice will be seen. All who live in the darkness will be seen in the Light of My Truth.

Prepare, children, for all that you know and understand is coming to an end.

Prepare, children.

I Love you.

Tuesday 31 January 2023

Trust Me: I Love you.

All that you see as truth is fast approaching its demise as My Spirit of Justice unravels the web of lies that surrounds this earth.

Trust Me and stay close and I will guide you.

Trust Me, My children.

I Love you.

Our mission is to speak the Truth about what is happening in this world and the danger the people of this world have put themselves in by rejecting their God in favour of believing lies. Many people, who say they are Christian, yet, twist the Truth to suit their lifestyle and accept sin as truth, this is where the Messages come in for sin has become the god in this world but so many are blind to this. Our mission is to speak the Gospel Truth before it is too late.

Ownership of the Houses of Prayer: We do not own the Houses of Prayer. They are Jesus' properties that He has asked for through the Messages of Love. So, they are His and His alone, held, by His Instruction, by the Committee that He set up for this role. Jesus has given Messages and Inspirations about the 'role' of each House and how it is to be set up and run. Each House is specific so that Jesus can achieve what He needs to achieve through it. As many convents, monasteries and, indeed, parishes, are closing down, it seems as though Jesus is providing a stability in each House that will hold on to the Truth, even while these other places are closing down.

Sacred Heart House of Prayer Committee:

The two Patricks always say: they are merely “postmen,” who deliver the Messages which Jesus gives to them. They do not own or control the finances of the Charity. They are both volunteers of An Invitation to Love Jesus, the Charity Jesus asked to be set up. Patrick O’Kane is very much involved in doing renovation work on the many Houses needing such work and Patrick Rushe does a lot of the Spiritual writings and when Jesus asks for another House to be set up, it is through him that Jesus speaks about it. Both Patricks are open to anything that Jesus asks through the Messages of Love. They would emphasise that people should come to the House of Prayer to find Jesus and NOT the two Patricks.

All properties owned by ‘An Invitation to Love Jesus’ are held in trust by trustees. An Invitation to Love Jesus is run by a twelve-member committee. We are registered as a Charity with the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland and our objectives, purposes, accounts and complete information is available for all to read on the website. https://www.

charitycommissionni.org.uk/

We are obedient to the Commandments, the Gospels and the Law of the Church. Gods Law, not man’s law:

29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. Acts 5:29

No church member or hierarchy have at any time questioned the Messages or the House of Prayer to our knowledge.

The Messages of Love are spread under a direct decree of the Sacred Congregation for the propagation of the Faith, under number 58/16 (A.A.S) permitting for the publication of writings about supernatural apparitions, even if they do not have a “nihil obstat” from ecclesiastical authorities. This decree was confirmed by His Holiness Pope Paul VI on October 14, 1966.

Anyone who comes to or contacts the House of Prayer does so of their own free will. We do not actively seek anyone to join the Way of the Sacred Heart Community. If someone comes to join the Community it is of their own free will and, we believe, the Inspiration of the Holy Spirit who gives the Graces to us all. No one is ever forced or coerced into accepting the Messages.

Patricks:

We hope that this answers the questions that are in so many hearts. Jesus is preparing for the future and what is to come through His Messages of Love and the Houses of Prayer. If we look, we can see the Messages that He has already given, are coming to pass. The Houses of Prayer are part of the Message. They are the Refuges that He has asked for as He prepares for the future when He is forced (by man's indifference) to put an end to the evil of this generation. The remnant of God have nothing to fear: those who try to walk in the Truth have nothing to be chastised for so, do not let fear trouble your hearts but rejoice, knowing that you are part of Gods remnant.

We ask that Jesus Blesses both you and all your families and one day we will all rejoice together in Heaven.

God Bless.

Writing from the two Patricks

TO DIE TO SELF

Nobody wants to do it

Many years ago, as a child, I heard a song. It was called "Everybody wants to go to Heaven..." I remembered the chorus which went: "Everybody wants to go to Heaven but nobody wants to die". And, for the life of me, I could never remember the rest but, that line stuck with me. I remembered it at various times through the years.

Today, as I write this, it came back to me and I added a bit to the original lyrics: Everybody wants to go to Heaven but nobody wants to die TO SELF. Even though dying to self might well get us into Heaven, nobody wants to do it.

Love God more

Dying to self seems like a prison sentence; it conjures up thoughts of never enjoying yourself again: ever. It only makes us miserable to think about it because we realise just how much self is in us. Dying to self means we can never again do the things we really want to do, the things that give us pleasure in life.

Most of the things that give us pleasure in life are the things that cause unhappiness too. We might like to drink alcohol, go out and be the life and soul of the party. We might like shopping, like to go on sprees for clothes or things to adorn our homes with. We might like to eat nice food or any food because it gives us pleasure. These are only a few examples as everybody has their own 'poison'. There is nothing wrong with these things in themselves, until, we start putting them in front of God then we wonder why we can't find Him. We want to keep God in our lives but we want these too. But, dying to self is about wanting to know and love God more and not just about losing the pleasurable things in our lives. It is about wanting something more, a different kind of pleasure: pleasure in Him alone.

Supernatural

None of us can understand what taking pleasure in God really means because God is supernatural and we are natural. We cannot get to Him unless He, Himself, reveals Himself to us. He is otherworldly, He is Spirit, He is Love.

In our fallen humanness, we naturally look for things that make us happy, that take us out of ourselves. We blindly look for things that will take us away from or make, somehow, better our existence. But there is nothing on this earth that can give us true happiness because our time here, on earth, is not made to be forever. We are seeking the "forever" happiness in all the pleasures we indulge in.

Humility

Dying to self, when begun in earnest, is the beginning of a Journey that we think is bad for us but we still want to go. The first thing we do on our Journey to God – for that is what it is – is to examine ourselves to recognise the mortal sin in us, to see it for what it is: a great wall that blocks out the Light of God which continually shines but we cannot see it because of the sins in our lives, the offences against the God of Love because we wanted to sin. We blocked Him out. Each brick in that wall is a sin that we built against Him so that we could have our own way, do our own thing. There is no Light here, behind this wall: we cannot see. We think we can see. We think we know because of the pride in us. Pride is what keeps us behind the wall: humility is what will get us on the Journey and will weaken the mortar between the bricks.

Imagine you are back in the famine days in Ireland. You are young and have your whole life ahead of you but where you are living the food is scarce. You know that there is not enough to sustain you into old age. You need to go to a better land where food is plentiful and you know you can stay alive there. So, you begin to pack your belongings and begin the journey. You begin to feel homesickness as you leave, a longing for the familiar, knowing you will never see or touch these things again. You also know that these things cannot be taken with you, they must be left behind if you are to complete the journey. You resolutely push them out of your mind many times because they cannot go with you, they will slow you down and make you not want to go. On the journey, there may be many times these things will rise up and fight their way through because they are the familiar, they are known territory, they are what you have always known. Memories will flood in and you relive the 'good times' and nostalgia will go to work on you but you know you must press on for the 'something better'.

Influenced by the Light

This is like dying to self. It is a not clinging to the familiar things, knowing there is something better that will slowly begin to occupy our lives to become the 'familiar', to become the things we want to do. Like the journey away from Ireland, dying to self is the Journey out of our blindness to the things of God. As these things begin to have less power over us, we begin to 'see' more. We begin to see what pleasure in God really is. It cannot be explained to us but only experienced.

After some minor wins over self, over the familiar, we are on the road. We must be determined to win all battles against it. We begin to feel different, somehow, a change is taking place in us, a new way of thinking, a new way of seeing begins. We must realise that not all battles with self will be won but as an army is beaten in a battle, they fall back, regroup and prepare to fight again.

We are working on the sin in our lives. We are being influenced by the Light that has begun to come through the holes in the wall where we have knocked out the bricks of sin by dying to them. We have unattached ourselves from some of our favourite pleasures and have begun to live a life without them.

Free will

Like the journey from Ireland, we have walked from our home for many miles, overcoming many obstacles on the way. Physical battles with the weather, homesickness and nostalgia have all taken their toll on us and we have fought them because we know there is something better waiting for us. All these battles with self on the Journey to God change us. We are not the same. We are beginning to feel the undercurrent of a new familiar, a new way of seeing, of thinking without the former attachments and sins. The battles with self have changed us: the things we attached ourselves to, do not have the same influence over us anymore and neither does sin. We are beginning to be different depending on how much of a fight we put up.

Think of it this way. We are covered in slippery oil and God cannot get a grip on us so He can Save us. We have chosen to be covered in oil in our free will. We need to clean part of the oil from ourselves, we need to begin the cleansing, out of free will. God will not take that away from us, it is His Gift to us. As we clean off the oil, God can get a grip on us and He begins to help us. We must continually ask Gods help throughout the Journey as we cannot continue without Him. Remember, it is to Him we are going.

Trust

Finally, we reach the port where the ship is, that will take us to the new land. God is the ship. Once we board Him, He begins to take over for we cannot remove the deep root of sin that is embedded in us: ONLY He can. Only He can take us onward, if we stay in His Hands, if we continue to fight self, He will bring us to His Land, the Promised Land.

Ships in the days of the famine in Ireland were strong and sturdy. They ferried thousands and thousands across the Atlantic for many years, even after the famine. Gods ship is trustworthy but we must allow Him to take us in His way. The sea will be rough at times and it will be calm. The nights will have no stars as the storms begin and it will seem an endless Journey but we are with God, who alone can take us through the treacherous waters of the night. Each day and night, each calm and storm are Gods Love bringing us through where we cannot go ourselves and all He asks is trust, trust in Him alone to bring us to safe harbour.

The Journey from self is scary but we have learned wisdom on each step.

THE HOUSES OF PRAYER

Solitude Spain

The progress made

Recently we, here at the House of Prayer, received a letter asking about all the other Houses of Prayer. The person who wrote in was basically saying that, while they had heard of the other Houses of Prayer from time to time, as we would be appealing for help and finances to do some work on them, they would like to see some of the progress made.

We have decided to put a little bit in the Newsletter each month about the progress made in these Houses. We hope to show you the up to date pictures we have of them by publishing information on one House each month. As you may be aware, there have been Houses that, for one reason or another, are no longer physical Houses however, the request for this House still stands and so, we will bring you this information also.

The year of the Houses

While we have been trying over the years, with the money we have, to do little bits and pieces with the Houses Jesus has purchased, it has not been enough, for Jesus needs His Houses ready.

Jesus spoke in January this year in a personal Message to Patricks and to the servants of the House. He asked that this year be "... the year of My Houses..." That we would make them as ready as we could. He told us that we have been slow to do this. We would hope to give Jesus what He asks of us and we will endeavour to do something with the Houses this year.

Soledad

A little History

In 1996, Jesus requested a House of Prayer in Garabandal, as Garabandal is the second calling to the servants of the Way of the Sacred Heart. In 2001, this House was purchased in Cosío, about three miles from Garabandal. It is called 'Solitude' because as Jesus said, silence is dear to His Heart. The renovation work there is ongoing and we hope soon to have it completed.

Jesus called the House 'Solitude' to remind us of His Aloneness. It is the same as His Aloneness in the Garden of Gethsemane, where even His beloved Disciples fell asleep. In this time, when the Church that He built with His own Body, is being torn apart, Jesus again feels this Aloneness. He likes us to be there for Him, to keep Him company.

His Aloneness seems to be very special to Him. And He desires that people would remember it when they go there and be with Him in His Aloneness; to remember His Aloneness in Gethsemane and His Aloneness now.

"...I speak of My Solitude in this House dedicated to it. I speak of My Aloneness in this time for I wish it to be known that the reason I name it thus is that My Solitude is synonymous with My Pain and I wish those who are here and those who come, to remember so that their silent moments can be shared with Me in this House..."

Thursday 28 February 2002

Jesus has already proved that Solitude is also a teaching ground where He will Teach many. The main Teaching to come from Solitude is: we must come to realise that this is a spiritual battle we fight, not a human one. Until we fully realise this then we CANNOT deepen our relationship with Jesus.

"...This House that you are in is a teaching ground but it is also a killing field – a killing field where your self dies and your soul lives because of it. None of you here realize the significance of your time here, you will have cause to remember it; you will have cause to remember the things you have been taught. I ask of you to remember it and live it... Many should come to Garabandal in winter and summer; Garabandal should never close and neither should My Soledad. I tell you these things because it is the time. Open your hearts to Me and what I say. I could tell you much more but your faith is feeble and I must be able to trust you in small things."

Saturday 10 December 2005

An interesting Story

In the days following the purchase of the House in Cosio, the Patricks had gone over with a few workers to begin getting the House ready. One Sunday, after Mass, one of the neighbours, Alfredo, invited them to his house to see the chapel in it which had been there from the time of Saint Teresa of Avila in the sixteenth century. While there, they noticed that the alcoves were missing the statues on this beautiful, highly decorated altar.

When they asked why there were missing, Alfredo told them that the statues had been there up until the Spanish civil war (1936-1939) when the communists took over the town. They were shocked by this. Alfredo further told them that the house that had become the headquarters of the communists, was the house that Jesus had purchased! He said that the statues, in that time of great turmoil, had been forcibly taken to that house and burned in it.

When the group began to renovate the House, they had to replace all the floors and, at one stage, there was only the ground floor left. They could see straight up to the roof. They noticed one of the walls, which had been a barn at one time, had great burn marks. There was no fire place or anything else there that could have been responsible for these marks. However the marks looked as though they had been contained in some way which led them to believe that something had been burned there.

As far as we know, the statues from that period of time were possibly made of wood so we realised that Jesus had reclaimed this House for His own!

As it stands

Soledad has been used for a number of years during the pilgrimages to Garabandal. However, for the last few years, we have not been able to go to Garabandal due to the restrictions that covid brought. When we were last there, the roof had been done. While the windows were also done, they are wooden and may well need replaced. We will not be able to assess this until we go over there.

There is also a shed at the back of the House of Prayer that we have been trying to purchase. The shed costs €30,000. We have this money set aside from a previous appeal for this, however things are very slow in Spain so this purchase is in working progress.

Jesus' Plans

About this House of Prayer, and only this House of Prayer, Jesus talked to the Patricks about a plan 'A'. This was to knock down walls, build a new toilet etc, etc.

Then He talked about a plan 'B'. This was to continue with the work already set but to make the House bigger than plan A.

The new shed we are trying to acquire is Plan 'C', and again this is to make the House bigger. This is the only House where Jesus has talked about a plan 'A', 'B' and 'C'.

Work that we know needs done

-Some floors need to be finished in this House.

-We also need to hang doors inside the House as there are currently only curtains being used as doors.

-The House needs furniture.

-There is a second bathroom to be finished.

-As plan 'C' opens up, there will be a new kitchen needed.

-Electrics have to be finished

-There is also plumbing to be finished.

Whatever happens with this shed, please say a prayer for this because the Spanish can be very slow.

Done first

When the Lord tells us what House He wants done first, we will let you know in the form of an appeal in the Newsletter.

We would like to sincerely thank you for all your prayers and donations thus far. At this time of going to print, our outstanding bills are now £16,114.00. Thank you so much for your continued support.

APPEAL FROM JESUS

Friday 4 January 2023

Jesus:

Children of Mine, once again, I ask you for help with My Houses. There are so few willing to take on the burden of My Truth.

My Houses are not yet prepared and the time is here when their Light shall burst forth into this world.

Trust Me, My children, and answer My calls.

I Love you.

Patricks:

In these Words, Jesus asks for help with His Houses for, once again, the debts are rising and we asked Jesus if He would speak for, in Truth, we are embarrassed to keep asking for your help.

So few have done so much in fulfilling Jesus' Dream. There are so few who are willing to help Jesus out of the billions of His children that populate this earth. We ask you for your prayers, your sacrifices and your financial help, if you are able. The bills at this time are about £42,000. This has been built up through the day to day running costs of the Houses and the ongoing work within the Houses.

Some people ask if we get paid. The Patricks and the servants within the Houses are all voluntary and do not receive any wages. As Jesus says, gather your treasure in Heaven, not upon this earth. We thank you with our hearts for any help that you can give.

Yours in the Love of Jesus and His Holy Mother Mary,
The Patricks and the servants of the Houses of Prayer.

Song of the Carpenter

The following is a serialisation of the 'Song of the Carpenter,' a novel inspired by Jesus and written down by the two Patricks. It is about the entire Life of Jesus and is full of spiritual teachings as well as a simply fantastic read.

If you cannot wait to read it all, then you can order it from the Sacred Heart House of Prayer. It costs £6.99.

*****

On the eighth day they brought the child to the Synagogue in Bethlehem to be circumcised to fulfil the Law of the Torah. They named him Jesus, which means 'Yahweh saves' as the Angel Gabriel had told Joseph in the dream.

Joseph found it hard to sleep. The days bled into one another and the Romans were taking their time about the census. They had set up their booths in the market place in Bethlehem but they were painfully slow and the crowds who had come for this purpose were becoming restless. The Romans could see it and had ordered extra foot soldiers for they feared a riot. New contingents had arrived and taken up their places in Bethlehem, watching with their eagle eyes for any signs of dissention. It was difficult to enter Bethlehem now, even for what little supplies they needed. An air of fear and tension had settled over the town; a great eagle whose wings created an ominous shadow over a colony of mice; each waiting for the other to move.

Joseph turned over in the straw. He wanted it all to go away, or at least come to his turn so that he could take Mary and Jesus back to Nazareth and get settled into their way of life once more.

He had been thrilled when the child was born. It was a joy to his ears to hear the healthy, strong cry of the infant, and such a beautiful child. He was not Joseph's son, by blood, but he claimed him for his own and that made him his adoptive son and an heir of David. He felt the thrill of a father on the birth of his firstborn, that feeling of responsibility and change of lifestyle to accommodate and incorporate another life into his own. He would teach the child the Scriptures and the ways of God as laid down by Moses. He had watched Mary feeding the child and felt one with them. At this time it was easy to pledge a promise to God of fidelity, for the child's birth and the events surrounding it were a tangible force in his life and he could see the hand of the Almighty within it. He wanted nothing else but what he had now.

The men from the East had spoken of Herod and that it was their belief that he wanted to do the child harm. They had told him of the gruelling week that they had spent in Herod's palace. But Joseph felt safe in the arms of God. He trusted that whatever dangers were afoot that God would protect them. Was Gabriel not making his presence felt? Joseph wondered at the Angel. He came as a messenger and he was still here. It was comforting to know that he, the protector, was being protected. The shepherd boy, Ephraim, had come to see the child again. His eyes were full of love. Whatever had happened the night that Jesus was born was still within the heart of the boy. He wanted to help Mary and Joseph in whatever way he could. He was a polite, well-mannered boy and they enjoyed his company.

The man could feel his eyelids grow heavy in the darkness of the cave and was glad that sleep had found him. He liked to be up before Mary awoke to prepare some food for her. He was not good with food but a little bread and goat's cheese was easy to prepare.

Joseph fell into the folds of sleep and it was like arms soothing and lulling him.

Joseph walked through the lush growth. Palms spread their umbrellas over the hot land to give shade and coolness. He felt the sunshine give life to the teeming plants that grew on either side of the road that he walked on. He could feel the plants absorb the light into their cells and create food in abundance. He felt it pummelling along the veins as a river in flood to carry the nutrients to the new leaves that were springing and bursting into the sun's light to prepare for the fruits that would carry the next generations. He could smell the growth; he could smell the greenness and it was heady with a richness that only spring could bring. He was happy and felt his soul reach up and praise the God who made him. As he walked the lushness came to an end abruptly and it was gone. Gabriel stood before him, resplendent in his white robes and he was like the sun. His wings glinting the light, he did not move and his face seemed unyielding. He stood tall and obedient like a soldier on a mission.

They were standing on a great open plain and Joseph could see the mountains and the hills in the distance. There was a light all around them and it seemed to be coming from behind the Angels head. He could feel the earth beneath his feet and the stones dug into the soles of his feet. Joseph knew it was the Plain of Moab.

"Son of Jacob, you have been brought here for a purpose. King Herod wishes the Child of God harm. He will kill the Holy One. You must take Mary and the child into Egypt. You will leave this night and go by way of Beersheba. From there you must travel on the Way of Shur, keeping yourselves with caravans. From there you will enter Egypt and go in to the Land of Goshen that was once the land of your fathers when they were exiled and settle there until you are told to return. Herod's days are numbered. Do not fear, Joseph, for you will be safe. Follow these instructions. You have done well in your mission, continue to do so."

"You wish me to do this now?"

"Time is not on your side, Joseph, you must go this night and do not delay."

"It will be done according to your wishes."

Wisdom

John Paul II

ENCYCLICAL LETTER: VERITATIS SPLENDOR

Addressed by the Supreme Pontiff Pope John Paul II to all the bishops of the Catholic Church regarding certain fundamental questions of the Church's moral teaching continued.

117. In the heart of every Christian, in the inmost depths of each person, there is always an echo of the question which the young man in the Gospel once asked Jesus: "Teacher, what good must I do to have eternal life?" (Mt 19:16). Everyone, however, needs to address this question to the "Good Teacher", since he is the only one who can answer in the fullness of truth, in all situations, in the most varied of circumstances. And when Christians ask him the question which rises from their conscience, the Lord replies in the words of the New Covenant which have been entrusted to his Church. As the Apostle Paul said of himself, we have been sent "to preach the Gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, lest the Cross of Christ be emptied of its power" (1 Cor 1:17). The Church's answer to man's question contains the wisdom and power of Christ Crucified, the Truth which gives of itself.

When people ask the Church the questions raised by their consciences, when the faithful in the Church turn to their Bishops and Pastors, the Church's reply contains the voice of Jesus Christ, the voice of the truth about good and evil. In the words spoken by the Church there resounds, in people's inmost being, the voice of God who "alone is good" (cf. Mt 19:17), who alone "is love" (1 Jn 4:8,16).

Through the anointing of the Spirit this gentle but challenging word becomes light and life for man. Again the Apostle Paul invites us to have confidence, because "our competence is from God, who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not in a written code but in the Spirit... The Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, reflecting the glory of the Lord, are being changed into his likeness from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit" (2 Cor 3:5-6, 17-18).

Conclusion

Mary, Mother of Mercy

118. At the end of these considerations, let us entrust ourselves, the sufferings and the joys of our life, the moral life of believers and people of good will, and the research of moralists, to Mary, Mother of God and Mother of Mercy.

Mary is Mother of Mercy because her Son, Jesus Christ, was sent by the Father as the revelation of God's mercy (cf. Jn 3:16-18). Christ came not to condemn but to forgive, to show mercy (cf. Mt 9:13). And the greatest mercy of all is found in his being in our midst and calling us to meet him and to confess, with Peter, that he is "the Son of the living God" (Mt 16:16). No human sin can erase the mercy of God, or prevent him from unleashing all his triumphant power, if we only call upon him. Indeed, sin itself makes even more radiant the love of the Father who, in order to ransom a slave, sacrificed his Son: his mercy towards us is Redemption. This mercy reaches its fullness in the gift of the Spirit who bestows new life and demands that it be lived. No matter how many and great the obstacles put in his way by human frailty and sin, the Spirit, who renews the face of the earth (cf. Ps 104:30), makes possible the miracle of the perfect accomplishment of the good. This renewal, which gives the ability to do what is good, noble, beautiful, pleasing to God and in conformity with his will, is in some way the flowering of the gift of mercy, which offers liberation from the slavery of evil and gives the strength to sin no more. Through the gift of new life, Jesus makes us sharers in his love and leads us to the Father in the Spirit.

The Plight of Others

THE PLIGHT OF DETRANSITIONERS

A dramatic rise

In the last decade, in every English-speaking country, there has been a dramatic rise in adolescents believing they are transgender and desiring cosmetic medical and surgical interventions. The UK NHS referral data shows a 4000% increase in paediatric gender service referrals! “Gender dysphoria” was once a very rare diagnosis for mostly males and is now commonly diagnosed in teenage girls.

Helena Kerchner

When Helena Kerchner was fifteen years old, she was introduced to gender ideology on “Tumblr” and began to call herself nonbinary. She went further down the rabbit hole over the next few years. When she was eighteen, she saw herself as a “trans man”, and made an appointment at Planned Parenthood to begin a testosterone regimen. She continued testosterone for a year and a half. It had an extreme negative effect on her mental health and, when she was nineteen, she admitted to herself that it had been a disaster. She stopped testosterone and began to get her life back on track. It wasn’t easy, the whole experience seriously derailed her life. Helena is one of the lucky ones.

Sinead Watson

Other detransitioners, like Sinead Watson, have been left with more irreversible damage. Sinead hated her body after being sexually abused and, in an effort to escape from it, she began taking testosterone and had a double mastectomy. After surgery, she realised that she was no happier, transition was not actually the solution to her problems. With the help of therapy she has been able to live with the pain of being sexually abused. However, after taking testosterone for four years, her voice sounds male and she needs to shave daily but because her skin is so sensitive, she can only shave every other day. Her hairline has receded. The effects of four years of being on testosterone are irreversible. If she doesn't make an effort to do herself up girly, strangers mistake her for a male and ask her why she is in the female toilets. She finds it tiresome having to share her life story with every single person who asks.

Sinead puts herself out there on social media to help others and warn them not to follow in her footsteps - by taking hormones and going through surgery. She is inundated on a daily basis with worried parents whose children are wanting to change their sex and, even more so, with depressed young people who regret their attempts to transition. The weight of hearing so much pain and heartache from so many young people often takes its toll on Sinead's mental health.

Richie Heron

Richie Heron went through the complete surgical procedure to transition his body from male to female. He was mutilated. He can no longer urinate without pain. It takes him ten minutes to try to empty his bladder, then leaks every where and has to change his clothes. His once young, healthy body is now infertile, incontinent and with ongoing pain. No one told him about any of these risks before surgery. He said he has no feeling down below, you could stab him and he wouldn't feel it. He has been left numb, both physically and mentally. He is currently suing the NHS.

KC Miller

KC Miller went bald after taking testosterone for over four years.

She is now twenty years old and trying to figure out how to live as a woman.

Chloe Cole

Chloe Cole started taking testosterone at the age of thirteen and had a double mastectomy aged fifteen. She is now suing the "experts" who told her parents that if she did not receive this gender reassignment that she would probably commit suicide! Of course there is no data to prove such a notion. It turned out that Chloe had been misdiagnosed with ADHD. She actually had Autism and this was the reason for her social anxieties, why she felt that she didn't fit in and when a boy groped her in class, it had a huge detrimental effect on her. An accumulation of social problems and anxieties led her to believe that if she turned into a boy, her problems would be resolved. Her parents supported her in this decision because they trusted the "experts."

When Chloe began to study psychology, she learned of the bond between mother and child by breast feeding, how those children flourished in every way. Chloe said she felt like a monster because she would never be able to have that bonding experience with her children. She regrets trying to switch gender and is very vocal in trying to stop other kids becoming victims of this child abuse.

Irreversible

With the rise in "affirmations," there are more and more young people who come to the realisation, too late, that the fantasy of transitioning is not actually as good as what they had envisaged. The biggest problem of all is if a child tells a teacher "I think I would like to change gender," the child is immediately affirmed, other mental health issues are not considered and all focus is put on that child to go down the irreversible path of hormones and surgery in an impossible task of trying to change sex.

Most kids who desire this change are hurting in some way, they may have family problems, they may be on the spectrum, they may be depressed, they may have been sexually abused. But none of this is investigated the moment they mention they want to change their gender. Instead, they are rushed along a path of permanent damage.

It is baffling that there are age restrictions on children smoking, drinking alcohol, getting a tattoo but none to prevent them trying to change their sex. If they were left alone during the rough years of puberty, there is sufficient evidence that shows the vast majority would eventually settle and learn to love their own bodies. Sadly anyone who opposes this destruction to children, are regarded as transphobic, disregarded and cast out of their jobs.

And so, a future of damaged, butchered, mutilated, incontinent, dysfunctional, infertile kids can only increase. What these children really need, is Jesus and the Truth. May God have Mercy on us all!

Euthanasia - A Danger to the Vulnerable

Pressurised suicide

Assisted suicide and euthanasia has repeatedly been introduced as amendments to bills in the UK over the last ten years but, thank God, have also repeatedly been defeated.

Currently, a consultation is being held by the Health and Social Care Committee on the public's views of Euthanasia. If the UK introduces assisted suicide, it could lead to a very slippery slope, with many vulnerable people feeling pressured to end their lives prematurely. In Canada and the Netherlands, people have been seeking euthanasia for disability, poverty, depression, alcoholism, and even autism - it doesn't take long for assisted suicide to turn into pressurised suicide.

Doctors are being bullied

Many in the medical profession are firmly against assisted suicide. In 2019, in Canada, an Ontario Court of appeal ruled that doctors who oppose euthanasia must still do referrals, which violates the doctors' freedom of conscience. The Physicians' Alliance Against Euthanasia in Canada also stated in 2020 that an increasing number of doctors are being bullied into participating in the provisions.

Burden on others

Doctors often find it problematic to accurately predict how much time someone with a terminal illness has left to live. A study conducted by the Marie Curie Palliative Care Research Department at University College London, in 2016, found that the accuracy of prognoses for terminal illness can vary widely, ranging from 78% to just 23%.

Any change to the existing laws will place pressure on vulnerable people to end their lives as they may fear being a financial or care burden on others. This pressure will be all the more increased in this time of cost-of-living pressures and many families facing economic pressures. Any change to the existing law will also change the relationship between doctors and patients as doctors will not always be seeking to preserve life.

Other forms of suffering

The current law serves as a strong deterrent to exploitation and abuse. The experience of other countries where assisted suicide has been legalised is that safeguards quickly deteriorate. The definition of 'terminal illness', for example, continually expands to cover illnesses that are not normally considered terminal, and with which patients can live for many years. Evidence sadly shows that in Canada people are seeking euthanasia because of credit card debt, poor housing or difficulty obtaining medical care. While they do have a medical condition, the underlying reason is actually from other forms of suffering.

Offered euthanasia

Once a 'right to die' is established, the limits on who has this 'right' are persistently extended with activists applying pressure to expand the categories of people who will qualify. The lives of vulnerable people are quickly devalued. This has been evident in Canada where a veteran who asked for a ramp for her wheelchair was asked if she would like to apply for euthanasia. Christine Gauthier, who competed for Canada at the 2016 Rio de Janeiro Paralympics and the Invictus Games that same year, told the House of Commons veterans committee that she was offered help to commit suicide when she was trying to acquire a wheelchair ramp from Veterans Affairs Canada (VAC). In another case in Canada, a soldier seeking help with PTSD was also offered euthanasia.

Increased prejudice

The vast majority of UK doctors and all major disability groups in the UK are also opposed to any change in the law because they believe it will lead to increased prejudice against people with disabilities and pressure on them to end their lives.

One of the greatest reasons for concern is the sheer scale of Canada's euthanasia regime. Both California and Canada legalised medically assisted death the same year, 2016, and it has about the same population, just under forty million. In 2021 in California, 486 people died using the state's assisted suicide program compared to 10,064 people in Canada.

Dr MacDonald CEO of Care Not Killing said:

"The current laws on assisted suicide and euthanasia exist to protect those who are sick, elderly, depressed or disabled from feeling obliged to end their lives. They protect those who have no voice against exploitation and coercion and those who care for them who might come under pressure to conserve scarce resources. They do not need changing."

Fear of being a burden

On moral matters, minor, restrictive changes in the law never stay that way. The extreme liberalisation of abortion practice in the fifty two years of the Abortion Act are a case in point. What was meant to make abortions safe, legal and rare opened the floodgates to women calling up to get pills for unsafe home abortions, never being seen by a clinician and never even speaking to a doctor. Without even substantively changing the law!

Again, Dr MacDonald puts it well: "They have seen what happens in the small number of jurisdictions that have gone down this dangerous path – places like Oregon and Washington where a majority of those opting to end their lives cite fear of being a burden as among their key reasons for euthanasia and others talk about financial concerns. In Canada, last year a court struck down the requirement that a person be terminally ill before they qualify for euthanasia. In the Netherlands or Belgium, laws which were supposed to be limited to mentally competent terminally ill adults, have been extended to non-mentally competent adults and children, profoundly disabled people, and even those with treatable psychiatric problems such as depression and anorexia. In the Netherlands, people have undergone euthanasia due to being alcoholic, suffering from chronic depression due to sexual abuse, autism, and fear of going into a nursing home."

Compassion and love

All of us have known someone in our life who has gone through suffering in some form or other and we have rightly felt great compassion and love towards them. Their situation has stirred us to turn to Jesus to help them in their sufferings. To offer prayers, Masses and give practical help. Euthanasia can never replace that compassion and love. It is a cruel quick fix to sufferings and problems. God is the Author of Life. He creates life and He takes it away. It is not for us to decide or interfere in Gods Plan for His children. We must continue to pray for the protection of Gods children from these evil laws and keep euthanasia and assisted suicide from spreading it's path of destruction of innocent life. Jesus, protect our countries and Your children from this evil.

On the right Path

Dear friends,

I enclose ticket stumps for the raffle. Also, a donation for the Houses of Prayer. I look forward to the monthly booklet each month. It keeps me on the right Path. May God and His Holy Mother Bless you all...

Kind regards,
Una

Lies abound

Dear Patricks,

Thank you for your magazine received regularly, which I enjoy very much. I also send copies to my friends of sections of it on my phone. Most of us are so impressed by your Messages concerning 'so-called' virus and the lies abound. So many people here are so devastated by what they've been constantly [told] (lies) by media etc. non-stop. Some will never go and socialise ever again!

Please pray for me and my family. We all have been affected one way or another by what's happening. Thank God we had the Grace of God not to accept the vaccine.

Enclosed is a small donation for your House and work you and your servants do. May God Bless and reward you all. Keep up the Lord's Work! I always pray for you every day.

I'm so glad you highlighted the plight of Fr Sean Sheehy in your last book. Fr Sean is my neighbour and such a treasure in the community. Pray for him.

God Bless you all.

Best wishes for New Year.

Ann

Just great

Dear friends,

Thank you very much for the Newsletters all year. They are just great and I enjoy them.

May God Bless you all in your good work.

Mary.

"...stop looking at your struggles and your hardships and look at Me. Reach out to Me, not to ask of Me for your needs for I know them but to ask where I wish you to be. I know your struggles but your worry of them keeps you anchored to this world and I cannot use you. Let go, My children, and I will melt you and mould you, I will carve you..."

Jesus, Sunday 14 October 2012

“Those who are able thus to enclose themselves within the little heaven of their soul where dwells the Creator of both heaven and earth,
and who can accustom
themselves
not to look at anything
nor to remain in any place which would preoccupy
their exterior senses,
may feel sure that they are travelling
by an excellent way,
and that they will certainly attain to drink of the water
from the fountain,
for they will journey far in a short time”

(Saint Teresa of Avila)
